Why We Serve:

"On the street I saw a small girl, cold and shivering in a thin dress with little hope of a decent meal. I became angry and said to God, "Why did you permit this? Why don't you do something? For a while God said nothing. That night He replied, quite suddenly, "I certainly did something about it, I made you." -- Mother Teresa

"Whatever you have received more than others in health, in talents, in ability, in success, in a pleasant childhood, in harmonious conditions of home life -- all this you must not take to yourself as a matter of course. In gratitude for your good fortune you must render in return some sacrifice of your own life for another life."
-- Albert Schweitzer

Now my brethren/sisters, we see that God is mindful of ever people, whatsoever land they may be in; Yea he numbereth His people, and His bowels of mercy are over all the earth. -- Alma 26:37
"Not what we give, but what we share, For the gift without the giver is bare; Who gives himself with his alms feeds three, Himself, his hungering neighbor, and me." -- James Russell Lowell

There are times when our hearts are touched by the need of others. We are impressed with the words of wisdom stated by great and admired men and women. As a result, we are inspired to move in the direction of making a change, embracing the Lord’s work as his servant – thus arriving with talents and energy to make a difference in someone’s life here and abroad.

Now is the time for us to come together as a community to serve those in need regardless of their location, creed or religion. Creating an environment of learning, service and good will. Anyone can gather collectively to unite their talents and resources in a work effort that will benefit those in need.
